

LATINATION MEDIA LAUNCHES PRIDE MONTH LINEUP HONORING DIVERSE LGBTQ+ VOICES

LOS ANGELES, CA, May 21, 2025 - LatiNation Media, the bilingual, culture-first media company shaping the future of Latino representation, is turning up the volume this Pride Month with bold, unapologetic programming that celebrates LGBTQ+ stories at the intersection of culture and identity. LatiNation will premiere the 30-minute special, Living y Ready, a powerful and intimate special spotlighting diverse voices living with HIV, alongside the highly anticipated Season 11 premiere of its award-winning series, The Q Agenda. All shows will premiere on LatiNation Media's linear network, LATV, and on the LatiNation app.

THE Q AGENDA

June 5, 2025, Episode 1:

"Excuse My Beauty" featuring Frankie Grande, Laganja Estranja, and Papi Kunno

June 12, 2025, Episode 2:

"Balancing Family & Fame" featuring Rafael de la Fuente and Celimar

June 19, 2025, Episode 3:

"Making Queer Films & Characters" featuring Willam Belli and Miguel Caballero & Luis Aldana

June 26, 2025, Episode 4:

"Perceptions of Love" featuring Curly Velasquez and Carlos Irizarry

The Q Agenda centers on the LGBTQ community and features hosts Enrique Sapene, Juliana Joel, Lianna Carrera, and Victor Ramos. It provides the audience with honest and funny conversations surrounding news, politics, social trends, and entertainment and how they affect the LGBTQ community and their allies. The Q Agenda recently garnered a special recognition at the GLAAD Media Awards for their immeasurable contributions to queer Latine visibility in their sector of entertainment and news media. The show recently achieved the milestone of its 100th episode and the June premiere marks the show's 11th season.

LIVING Y READY 2025

June 23, 2025

10:00 PM ET/7:00 PM PT

Living y Ready is a short-form series produced by LATV's LGBTQ+ creator community. The network's unique HIV digital journalism series—created by Andrés Palencia, directed by Andrew Tamarkin, captured on camera by Pedro González Kuhn, with original illustrations by Tevy Khou—interweaves the stories of five diverse individuals living with HIV and their close friends and partners. This new 30-minute special focuses on reframing the narrative around HIV through informative segments, candid conversations, and queer expression, with the tagline "living ready for all the changes, experiences, and challenges that come with life after seroconversion." In this special, the features people of color who are living with HIV, including Dorian Klemensine, Jose Ramos, Dale Roberson, Marilynn Ramos, Ceaser Corona, and Daniel Garza. In addition, Jerry Rodriguez, Christian Ramirez, and Miguel Bujanda (three individuals who have been close to those with HIV) give poignant testimonies on camera.

STORYTELLERS PRIDE 2025

June 2, 2025

10:00 pm ET/7:00 pm PT

LatiNation Media's docuseries, Storytellers is the original docu-series and this special showcases creatives who carry on the Latino tradition of storytelling. The series back with four Queer Latine Artists reshaping culture. In this Pride 2025 episode of Storytellers, we spotlight queer Latino creatives reshaping the cultural narrative. Food blogger Jesus Zambrano welcomes us into his kitchen—and his family—showing how food, love, and fatherhood come together in his home. David Archuleta opens up about American Idol fame, coming out in the spotlight, and finding his spiritual path. Dancer Carlos Basquiat, an Afro-Latino from the Bronx, shares how dance became his refuge—and took him from childhood struggles with bullies to Beyoncé's stage and now LA's Ballroom scene. Actress Josielyn Aquilera reflects on growing up in small-town California and the pride she takes in portraying complex trans characters on screen.

BLACKTININDAD

DATE

TIME

Blacktinindad is a safe space to celebrate Afro-Latino culture and community. Hosted by Celebrity Host Amara Le Negra, this one-of-a-kind show provides culturally relevant social discourse that addresses the complexities and nuances of the Afro-Latino lived experiences. It also builds community by amplifying Afro-Latino community members in business, entertainment, the arts, and more. Blacktinidad provides culturally relevant and insightful content that pushes through barriers and highlights all things Afro-Latino and Afro-Diasporic.

About LatiNation Media

Authenticity drives impact at LatiNation—an award-winning, independent media powerhouse built by Latinos, for everyone. Unapologetically bicultural and bilingual, we amplify culture across every screen—linear TV, streaming, social, digital, and FAST/AVOD/CTV. LatiNation's dynamic product lineup includes the independent cable network LATV, LatiNation FAST, the LatiNation+ App, and our in-house production teams. We connect brands to the pulse of the new mainstream, reaching 81% of U.S.

Hispanic households across the top 47 DMAs. In our casa, culture isn't just content—it's the fabric of a generation. Consider this your passport to LatiNation.

@LatiNation, #LatiNationMedia

Contacts:

Hanna Bolte, Hanna@BolteMedia.com

Dina White, Dina@DinaWhitePR.com